Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1 — Organization

Harmony for Hope, Inc. is a West Virginia nonprofit corporation and federally recognized 501(c)(3) public charity (EIN: 81-1907024), granted tax-exempt status effective March 16, 2017. The organization's mission is: Uniting West Virginia with music, art, and Appalachian heritage through technology. The organization's IRS mailing address is 706 Main Street, Mount Hope, West Virginia 25880, and its principal office is located at 704 Main Street, Mount Hope, West Virginia 25880. Principal programs include the Mount Hope Historic Walking Trail, the Fayette County Community Arts Center, the Oakvale Area Outreach Team, and the MountainShares Commons community heritage platform.

Note 2 — Basis of Accounting

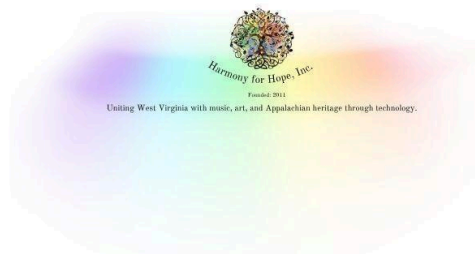

These financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, modified to recognize significant in-kind contributions of services paid by a third party directly on the organization's behalf, where the fair value of those contributions is readily determinable from amounts actually paid (see Note 5). Harmony for Hope, Inc. files the IRS Form 990-N (e-Postcard) annually and is not required to undergo an independent audit at this revenue level. These statements are unaudited and prepared by the organization's authorized representative for grant application purposes.

Note 3 — Program Technology Expense

Harmony for Hope, Inc. paid a monthly Claude Pro AI subscription (Anthropic) from its own funds at $21.20 per month for the period January through December 2025, totaling $254.40. This subscription supported technical development and program delivery work performed by Kidd's Technical Services on behalf of Harmony for Hope. Payment records are maintained via Stripe invoicing.

Note 4 — Related Party

Carrie Ann Kidd serves as both the authorized representative of Harmony for Hope, Inc. and the owner of Kidd's Technical Services. The organization manages this relationship through conflict-of-interest governance procedures and the executed Master Services Agreement between the two entities. The program technology expense described in Note 3 relates to this arrangement and will be documented through board conflict-of-interest procedures.

Note 5 — In-Kind Contributions

During fiscal year 2025, a volunteer paid certain operating subscriptions directly on behalf of Harmony for Hope, Inc.: website hosting at $20 per month ($240 for the year) and the CapCut video production service at $25 per month ($300 for the year), totaling $540. Because these amounts reflect actual third-party invoices with readily determinable fair value, they are recognized in these statements as both in-kind contribution revenue and a corresponding in-kind program expense, with no net effect on cash or net assets.

Harmony for Hope, Inc. also receives significant in-kind technical services from Kidd's Technical Services, including ALLIS platform access, system configuration, technical documentation, and development support. These related-party contributions are not separately valued or recorded in these statements; they are disclosed here given the difficulty of reliably valuing them and the related-party nature of the arrangement.

Note 6 — Grant and Partnership Activity

During fiscal year 2025 and continuing into fiscal year 2026, Harmony for Hope has pursued and secured concept-stage letters of support from the New River Gorge National Park and Preserve, the Town of Thurmond, Starry Eyes Media, and Dr. Anurag K. Srivastava of West Virginia University. Active grant applications are in development for the Beckley Area Foundation, Bank of Richmond CTFI Cohort, MIT/Truist Foundation Inspire Awards, and Marshall University partnership. No grant revenues from these applications have been recorded in the fiscal year 2025 statements.

I certify that the information in these financial statements is, to the best of my knowledge, complete and accurate.
